

NEW JERSEY ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

MEN'S OUTDOOR TRACK & FIELD ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

WEEK ENDING 5/24/09

TRACK ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

AL WONESH • The College of New Jersey
Junior • Columbus, NJ/Northern Burlington

Wonesh earns the final NJAC Men's Outdoor Track Athlete of the Week selection, his third of the season, after traveling to Marietta, OH to compete at the NCAA Division III National Championship hosted by Marietta College. He earned All-American honors by placing fifth in a field of 16 competitors in the 400 meter hurdles with a school-record time of 52.79. Wonesh's performance helped propel the Lions to a 54th place finish in the 81-team NCAA National Championship.

FIELD ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

KYLE HAYES • Rowan University
Sophomore • Point Pleasant, NJ/Point Pleasant Boro

Hayes earns the final NJAC Men's Outdoor Field Athlete of the Week selection, his second of the season, after traveling to Marietta, OH to compete at the NCAA Division III National Championship hosted by Marietta College. After winning his preliminary flight and advancing to the finals, he earned All-American honors by placing fourth overall in a field of 17 total competitors with a leap of 7.08 meters. Hayes' performance helped propel the Profs to a 29th place finish in the 81-team NCAA National Championship.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

BRIAN BUCKNOR • New Jersey City University
Freshman • Irvington, NJ/St. Benedict's Prep

Bucknor earns the final NJAC Men's Outdoor Track & Field Rookie of the Week selection, his third of the season, after traveling to Marietta, OH to compete at the NCAA Division III National Championship hosted by Marietta College. He placed ninth overall in a field of 17 competitors in the 400 meters with a time of 48.15. Bucknor, who placed fourth in his preliminary heat, ended up just one spot short of qualifying for the finals in the event.